Type of Business:

Electrical Service Company

Location:

St. Louis County

Broker Summary:

This electrical service company has been around for over 10+ years. They started July 2005. After a number of years in the electrical field the owner decided it was time to start a company that exceeds customers' expectations. This business hit the ground running. In the first year alone this electrical company did over 800,000 in sales and continues to grow each year. Their business is 60% residential and 40% commercial. Of the 60% residential 80% of that is service calls and the other 20% is work like wiring a new room additions etc. This business can be relocated as buyer doesn't have to buy or lease current real estate.

The current owner may stay on as (Master Electrician) for the right buyer and offer.
